

Lycaste angelae var. rubra from Costa Rica

LYCASTE ANGELAE VAR. RUBRA

Lycaste angelae var. rubra Oakeley var. nov. Sect. Intermediae

A varietate typical floribus rubris differt.

Holotype: San José, Costa Rica, in cultivation, the photo published here, June 2006. Oakeley s.n. (holo. K-HFO).

Note: this plant has affinities to L. x daniloi.

Description

As for Lycaste angelae except the tepals are heavily marked with red.

Etymology

The varietal name rubra is Latin for 'red'.

Distribution and herbarium specimens

Costa Rica – type in cultivation in San José, Hune 2006, Oakeley s.n.